WELCOME TO TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

We extend a warm welcome to everyone visiting us today in person or online. Wherever you are on your faith journey, Trinity's doors are open to you. If you would like more information about Trinity Episcopal Church, please fill out one of the blue welcome cards hanging on the pews and give it to our greeter or one of our ushers at the end of the service, or contact the church at info@trinitycovington.org. Our greeter, ushers, and clergy will also be happy to answer any of your questions.

Assisted listening devices are available from an usher.

SUNDAY SERVICES DURING EASTER

The Great Fifty Days of Easter extend from Easter Eve through the Feast of Pentecost (May 19 this year). During Easter we omit the Confession and Absolution as a reminder that Christ’s resurrection redeems us from sin and death. The Easter Blessing reminds us that we are redeemed by Christ and sent into the world to serve the Risen Lord.

TODAY’S MUSIC

The composer of today’s prelude William Boyce (1710-1779) sang as a boy chorister under Maurice Greene at St. Paul’s Cathedral, London. He became organist of two London churches and then Master of the King’s Musick following his teacher Maurice Greene. Increasing deafness caused him to give up his positions. Boyce retired to Kensington to edit a collection of English Cathedral Music begun by Maurice Greene. Using material collected by Greene of compositions of Purcell, Gibbons, Blow, and others, Boyce’s three volumes remained in use for almost 150 years. Boyce’s ten organ voluntaries follow the established form of two movements: a slow introduction followed by a lively movement. The tune for today’s Sequence Hymn Halton Holgate (Hymn 706) was composed by Boyce. In addition to music for the church and for the theater, Boyce wrote 8 symphonies published in 1760.

The Sixth Sunday of Easter is sometimes referred to as Rogation Sunday. Technically the rogation days are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday before Ascension Day (40 days after Easter and always on a Thursday). The days are set aside to pray for the harvest. This morning’s anthem “King Jesus Hath a Garden” is a harmonization of a Dutch tune by English composer Charles Wood (1866-1926).

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 10:44-48 (sit)

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 98 (sit)

BCP, Page 727

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new song, *
for he has done marvelous things.
- 2 With his right hand and his holy arm *
has he won for himself the victory.
- 3 The Lord has made known his victory; *
his righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.
- 4 He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, *
and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
- 5 Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands; *
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
- 6 Sing to the Lord with the harp, *
with the harp and the voice of song.
- 7 With trumpets and the sound of the horn *
shout with joy before the King, the Lord.
- 8 Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, *
the lands and those who dwell therein.
- 9 Let the rivers clap their hands, *
and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord,
when he comes to judge the earth.
- 10 In righteousness shall he judge the world * and the peoples with equity.

A Reading from the First Letter of John 5:1-6 (sit)

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Sequence, Hymn 706 "In your mercy, Lord, you called me" (stand) Halton Holgate

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 15:9-17 (stand)

Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

(1866-1926)

King Jesus hat a garden, full of divers flowers,
Where I go culling posies gay, all times and hours.
*Refrain: There naught is heard but Paradise bird, Harp, dulcimer, lute,
With cymbal, trump and tymbal, and the tender soothing flute.*

The Lily, white in blossom there, is Chastity:
The Violet, with sweet perfume, Humility. Refrain.

The bonny Damask-rose is known as Patience:
The blithe and thrifty Marygold, Obedience. Refrain.

The Crown Imperial bloometh too in yonder place,
'Tis Charity, of stock divine, the flower of grace. Refrain.

Yet, 'mid the brave, the bravest prize of all may claim
The Star of Bethlem—Jesus—blessed be his Name! Refrain.

Ah, Jesu Lord, my heal and weal, my bliss complete,
Make thou my heart thy garden-plot, fair, trim and neat.
That I may hear this musick clear: Harp, dulcimer, lute,
With cymbal, trump and tymbal, and the tender, soothing flute.

D'Angio's departure as well as our confirmands. We look forward to seeing you there. For more information, please contact the Parish Administrator Andrew Dunn.
- Once a month during the summer we will have a African Bible Study after service. The format is simple: we will take one of Sunday's gospel passages and read it in three different translations. After each translation we are asked questions. The challenge is not to start a conversation but to focus on listening intently to what each person shared. More info will be forthcoming from our Lay Pastoral Associate, Susan Blom.
